

GUAYABERO RIVER

EXPERIENCE

Located in the Serranía de la Macarena, one of the beautiful sea places in Colombia where we will find the Guayabero and Lozada rivers, home to many large species of Catfish and the mythical Payara (Vampire Fish), this river has large water currents that make the perfect home for your habitat and for fishing, with records of catfish over 150 pounds and Payaras of more than 30 pounds.

This site is accompanied by a unique natural environment, beautiful rock canyons and a great biodiversity of birds, mammals, reptiles and insects that will make this trip a unique experience.
